Circular for all students

Dear Parents,

Hope you are doing fine and were satisfied with the meetings held at the beginning of this scholastic year.

Below please find information and dates as per date of issue of this circular.

Feel free to share with the school community any concerns/suggestions. May I remind you that all parents are represented through the School Council Committee by 3 parents. These are Mandi, the mother of Kiran in Year 5, Oriana, mother of Albert in Year 2.1 and Ruben, father of Giuliana in Year 5. Carmen is the School Council President and she lives in Gharghur.

Daily reading is a must in both Maltese and English.

Kindly keep the children warm. All windows need to remain open. Please label uniform pieces, especially jackets.

November almond and pastry sweet bones will be on sale at the price of €1.60 each bone. Students were given an order form; though ordering is totally voluntary.

We will be collecting food items in December. This is voluntary. Closer to the month we will share with you the food items which Food Bank would like us to donate.

We will be holding 3 virtual parental talks in November. In this way, we will keep connected while sharing educational information. Parents will only be receiving the relevant link, according to their child's year group.

Info re Term 1 Parents' Day or Parents' Evening will be shared with all, later.

OCTOBER

22	We all go pink and blue; pink for Pink October and blue for Movember. Students wear blue and/or pink accessories with their school uniform . A €2 donation will be collected as a proceed for the Karl Vella Foundation . Students wear their school uniform with their accessories which may include hair bows, socks, shoes, bracelets, necklaces, hats.
25	Last day for November sweet bone order.
25 - 29	Autumn Fest all through this week. Learning is themed around Autumn. Students may bring carved pumpkins to decorate their class and school.

29	Autumn Hair Day. Students may come to school wearing an Autumn-themed hairstyle. November sweet bones distributed to students who ordered.
